

Behavior Changes to Bring Phlegmatics Closer to God

- Learn to interact with God and Christ as they would any other surface relationship.
- Learn to inspire themselves to do something about the injustices they see.
- Learn that submission to God unlocks potential.
- Learn to inspire themselves to be more open and loving with the Lord.
- Learn to make decisions according to the Will of God and look to Him to defend them.
- Learn to submit to the Will of God in order to lessen stubbornness.
- Learn that only through expending energy and becoming deeply involved with personal relationships can they reach maturity.
- Phlegmatics have a tendency to deal with their personal relationship with Christ in the same way they do any other deep relationship, being spectators and not getting too deeply involved.
- Learn to see the rights and feelings of others according to the Word of God.
- Phlegmatics will unthinkingly make humorous remarks about the rights and feelings of others.
- Learn to depend on the opinions of God, not the opinions of people.

An Excerpt from:

Creation Therapy

A Biblically Based Model for Christian Counseling

By Richard Gene Arno, Ph.D. and Phyllis Jean Arno, Ph.D.